

ACTA Security

CONNECTING THE PORTS TO THE NATION

Theft of Rail Cargo in the Press

- Recent press on theft of rail cargo in Lincoln Heights
- Outside of ACTA territory
- Robbery only occurs where trains slow or stop

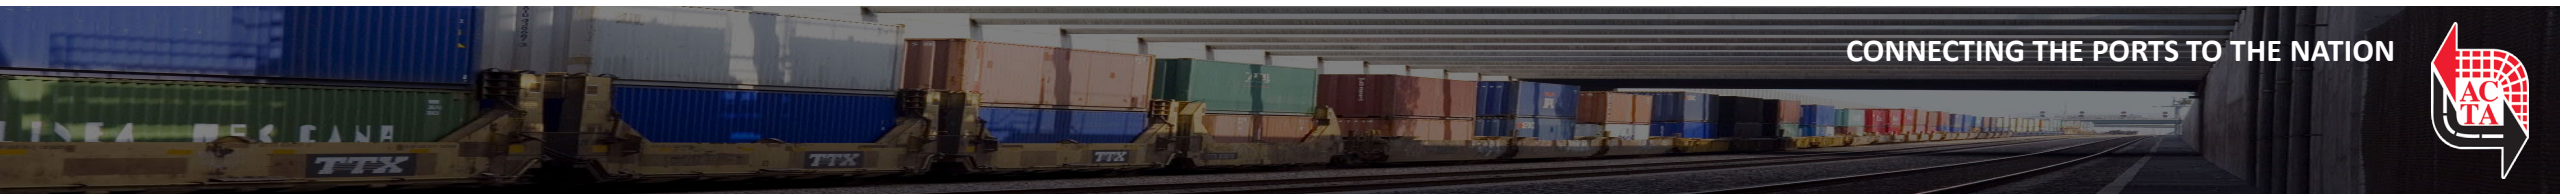

Alameda Corridor Security Benefits

- Trains move speedily through Alameda Corridor
- Trench isolates for further security
- IPI cargo loaded on-dock can be moved without stopping, and is thus more secure than Domestic or Transload

Alameda Corridor Security

- Railroads are contracted to provide protection services
- Task Force augments railroad police in southern portions
- Security includes protecting cargo, protecting infrastructure and public safety

Railroad Security

- Outside of Alameda Corridor
- Railroads have their own police force
- Working to collaborate with City of LA and County Sherriff
- Critical to service performance
